Passage 1

Stopping Yelling At Your Kids

Parenting is hard. If you're a parent, I'm sure that I don't need to tell you that our job is a tough one. When you're managing children, it can be difficult to remember that they are still learning. If you find you are yelling at your kids more often than you want to, here are some ways that can help you reduce the yelling. I've been working on this for the past few months and I have to say, it's been amazing for both the kids and me.

If you are having an argument with your child, you need to make sure you both take the time to really listen. It gives both of you time to think and really listen to each other, which is important. Kids are more likely to listen to you if you listen to them!

One of your biggest struggles is to remind yourself of appropriate expectations. You can't expect that your youngest acts as responsibly as your oldest. You should lower what you expect-taking into consideration things like their age-it can make a big difference.

You should do your best to take a moment before yelling and take in a deep breath. It makes a world of difference for you. Instead of yelling, you'd better whisper. It can also help diffuse any situation by making things quieter, not louder. Besides, the more time you spend with your kids, the better you'll get at communicating with them. You're both more likely to understand each other.

If your children aren't listening or it seems they only don't listen to you, you don't take it personally. You should remind yourself that your kids are still learning and they're not going to be perfect.

21. What is the passage most likely to be?

- A. An announcement.                      B. A letter.
C. A speech.

22. _____ is very important when there is an argument between the kid and the parent.

- A. Yelling at each other                      B. Listening to each other
C. Whispering to each other

23. Parents should hold _____ for their kids.

- A. lower expectations                      B. identical expectations
C. appropriate expectations

24. Which is most likely TRUE about kids of different ages?

- A. Every kid is a perfect child.                      B. Elder kids may act better.
C. Younger kids learn quicker.

25. What is the most likely topic of the passage?

- A. The art of parenting.                      B. The learning kids.
C. The yelling parents.

26—30题: 根据短文内容判断给出的语句是否正确,正确的写“T”,错误的写“F”,并将答案写在答题纸上。

Passage 2

A passenger told an air hostess that he needed a cup of water to take his medicine when the plane just took off. She told him that she would bring him the water in ten minutes.

The air hostess was kept so busy that she forgot to give him the water. As a result, the passenger was held up to take his medicine. Thirty minutes later, when the passenger's ring for service sounded, she hurried over to him with a cup of water, but he refused.

In the following hours on the plane, each time the air hostess passed by the passenger, she would ask him with a smile whether he needed help or not. But the passenger never answered a word.

When he was going to get off the plane, the passenger asked the air hostess to hand him the passengers' booklet. She was very sad. She knew that he would write down sharp words, but with a smile she handed it to him.

Off the plane, she opened the booklet, and smiled, for the passenger put it. "On the flight, you asked me whether I needed help or not for twelve times in all. How can I refuse your twelve sincere smiles?"

That's right! Who can refuse twelve sincere smiles from a person?

26. The passenger wants a cup of water because he is thirsty.
27. The air hostess forgot to give him the water on purpose.
28. The passenger refused the cup of water she brought finally.
29. The passenger didn't write any sharp words in the booklet.
30. This passage tells us that a sincere smile brings no use in certain cases.
