The celebration of International Women's Day (IWD) in 2011 was special as it marked the 100th anniversary of IWD. The United Nations' theme for the 2011 IWD was "Equal access to education, training, science and technology: Pathway to decent work for women".

One hundred years ago, gender equality and women's empowerment were largely radical ideas. One hundred years later, there has been significant progress in women's empowerment and participation through determined advocacy, practical action and enlightened policy making. However, in too many countries and societies, women's social position is still low and lots of women are still trapped by poverty, discrimination, unemployment, illiteracy and violence.

As a basic human right, education is a key driver of economic growth and social change and the basis of women's empowerment. The global economy is increasingly knowledge-driven, and requires an educated workforce able to apply the existing technology and to develop new science and technologies to combat poverty and adapt to emerging issues.

As education is the key to greater empowerment for women, investing in women and girls through the education sector has therefore a positive effect on the well-being of their families, their communities and nations. Strengthening the bridges between education, training, science and technology and the labor market is important in order to promote equal opportunity to decent employment for women.

21. 2011 International Women's Day (IWD) was special because _____

- A. it is the beginning of women's equality.
- B. it is 100th anniversary.
- C. women got too much rights in that day

22. _____ is a key factor of economic growth and social change and the women's empowerment.

- A. Equality
- B. Family responsibility
- C. Education

23. Which of the following is not suffered by women in society nowadays?

- A. poverty
- B. unemployment
- C. family burden

24. Which one is NOT mentioned in relation to "education equality"?

- A. pathway to decent work for women
- B. development of new science
- C. women's empowerment.

25. What is the best title for the passage?

A. Creating Equal Access to Education

B. International Women's Day

C. Human Rights

26—30 题：请根据短文内容判断给出的语句是否正确，正确的写(T)，错误的写(F)。

I've been living in the country for more than 10 years. It means quietness, privacy, harmony and peace for me.

Living in the country requires an active lifestyle. It involves activities like doing daily chores, preparing firewood for winter heating, feeding animals including pets and livestock, tending the garden, or securing fences, etc. For me, the most attractive activities are fishing, hunting and hiking. I enjoy seeing what nature has to offer everyday through a simple walk down the little trail, or a relaxing drive along the country road with patches of green grass ornamented with wildlife sightings of birds, moose, bears, deer, etc.

Living the country life helps us appreciate some of the simpler things, things that make us feel good about ourselves and the world. It may be just a get together on a Saturday at the local farmers market, or a project or a problem that the community might pull together to help solve. I have participated in a few community projects, like dealing with out-of-control grass fires, a roof that collapsed from a large snow fall, or even helping a recent widow with fire wood for the winter. Sometimes I am surprised by how much benefit we receive from helping others and as for this community I can't say enough.

I really enjoy living the country life. I know it's not for everyone, but I know it's for me.

26. The author has lived in the countryside for more than a decade, and he/she loves living there.

27. Living in the country is not busy at all.

28. The author takes a walk or drives along country roads almost every day.

29. People living in the country usually go shopping every Saturday.

30. According to the author, nobody dislikes countryside life.
